Milton Dehn

Milton J. Dehn, Ed.D. is the Test Development Project Director for Schoolhouse Educational Services. He earned a B.A. in Psychology from the University of Minnesota, an M.S. in School Psychology from Morehead State, and an Ed.D. in Educational Psychology from the University of South Dakota. Dr. Dehn practiced School Psychology in schools and in private practice for more than 35 years. Over the past several years, his private practice has focused on dyslexia assessment and autism assessment. He was also a School Psychology professor and program director for 13 years at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. Dr. Dehn is an author and speaker on the subjects of cognitive assessment, SLD identification, dyslexia, and children's memory problems. His books include Essentials of Processing Assessment, 2nd Ed., Essentials of Working Memory Assessment and Intervention, Helping Students Remember, Working Memory and Academic Learning, and Long-Term Memory Problems in Children and Adolescents.

S2P
SCIENCE TO PRACTICE