

LDA
Learning Disabilities
Association of America

LDA'S 59TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

PRECONFERENCE

Mental Health Matters:

Considerations and Strategies for At-Risk Students.

January 26th, 9:30am - 5:00pm

The legacy of the COVID pandemic is an array of mental health issues, especially for those who already face the challenges of learning disabilities. Join us in New Orleans for a special Pre-Conference Seminar focusing on Mental Health and the LD community. Lunch will be provided!

Just $79 when you register for the full conference by October 31, 2021. For rates when purchased outside of full conference registration or after October 31, 2021, please visit www.ldaamerica.org/events/annual-conference.

Featuring:

Dr. Kelli Jordan

Senior School Support Officer, NOLA Public Schools

"You Can't Pour from an Empty Cup":

Resilience, Self-Care, and Wellness for Educators

Beverly Johns

Author and Learning and Behavior Consultant

Anxiety in Children: Before and After the Pandemic

Sunny Naughton

National Mental Health First Aid Trainer, Sunshine Silver Lining

Lunch & Learn: Mental Health First Aid Information Session

Manju Banerjee

Vice President of Educational Research & Innovation, Landmark College

Double Jeopardy: Learning Differences and Emotional Trauma Due to Homelessness

Dr. Erica Moore

Associate Professor & Special Education Department Chair, Lock Haven University

Cultivating Social Emotional Learning in the World of Postsecondary Education

Elaine Taylor-Klaus

Author, CEO ImpactParents.com

School Refusal and Disengagement in Complex Kids